

In Nevada County's tiny hamlet of Washington, that "Paradise on the Yuba," the residents were always proud of their mountain culture in spite of their rough and tough mining background. Photography was just coming in style when this picture was taken on July 4, 1866. Left to right: flag boy, George A. Grissel, John McBean, Philip Goyne, conductor, John Goyne, Fritz Meister, Mr. Moulton, Dr. Wilkinson, Mr. Adams and Mr. Brown.