Welcome To Our Concert

Performed by the NCCB, the Official Community Concert Band of Nevada County

The history of the Nevada County Concert Band dates back to the days of the Cornish gold miners. Ernie Harries, a musician and bank manager in Nevada City, formed the band. Since its first formal concert in 1972, the band has actively participated in numerous community events. Membership consists entirely of volunteers.

Conductor – Henry Hansen

Henry Hansen's association with the band began in 1985 as a conductor and clarinetist. Henry continues to participate in other music organizations and ensembles. He has been a player in the Sierra Nevada Winds, the Twin Cities Chamber Players, the Sierra Community Symphony, the Foothill Symphony Orchestra, and the CSU-Sacramento Clarinet Choir. He has played for productions by the Foothill Theater Company, the Nevada Union Theater, and the Community Players. Henry has also organized and performed in house concerts for the Sierra Musical Arts Association.

Concert Announcer – Jack Stewart

In addition to being a clarinetist, Jack Stewart is also the Voice of the NCCB, adding his sometimes ribald, usually humorous, but always informative commentary to our programs.

Jack has been involved with the band since 1987. After playing in some school groups, Jack became a member of the Tenth Olympiad Band for the 1932 Los Angeles Olympic Games. This Olympiad Band was a synthesis of four, smaller, 50-piece bands: band A consisted of professional musicians, bands B and C were high school volunteers, and band D consisted of members from the Pasadena Jr. College Band. Jack played in band C.

In 1955, after a 20 year hiatus, Jack joined the Aahmes (Oakland) Shrine Temple band. He later played in the Castro Valley Community Band, followed by the Walnut Creek Concert Band, and, finally, by the Nevada County Concert Band.
