

FEATURES

July 18, 2002

Concert band saluting Sousa again Sunday

The Union Staff

Nevada County Concert Band's Pioneer Park Picnic Pops concert series continues at 5 p.m. Sunday with the second annual "Salute to Sousa" concert.

To honor prolific composer and conductor John Philip Sousa, the band will play his marches, a waltz, an operetta and a suite.

Conductor is Patti Carter.

Zoom

Assistant conductor Cheryl Baker will provide vocals for a Sousa waltz, "I've Made My Plans for Summer," a light song about a young woman and her suitor who meet at an amusement park.

Some of the well-known marches Sunday will be "The Washington Post March," "The Thunderer," "Semper Fidelis" and "Stars and Stripes Forever."

To acknowledge the bugle's role in the history of military march music, an audience member will win a free bugle and a lesson. Balloons will be given to children.

Sunday's concert is dedicated to longtime band member Everett Currier, who died July 14.

The free concert is at Pioneer Park's band shell in Nevada City. Donations are accepted.

Bring picnic meals, lawn chairs and blankets. For more information, call 477-4787.

Community Center

Newsstands

SPEAK OUT

Submit It

Contact Us

RELATED SITES

Tahoe.com

Reno.com

SITE

Contact the Webmaster

Bookmark this Site

← BACK   ▲ TOP OF PAGE   🖨️ PRINT FRIENDLY

- Plays the thing this week in county
- Dance your anxieties away at benefit
- Bear River choir releases debut album
- Bluegrass fest features James KingLast weekend, it was world music at the Nevada County Fairgrounds in Grass Valley. This weekend, it's traditional bluegrass. The 11th annual Wolf Mountain Bluegrass Festival features national and West Coast bands, after
- Deadheads' delight: It's Jerry Bash time again
- Tickets only available for last day of final festival

Forward this article to a friend

Your name:

Your e-mail address:

To e-mail address:

Message:

Send