

NEVADA COUNTY CONCERT BAND

UNDER THE ARTISTIC DIRECTION OF CHERYL WOLDSETH

presents the second in their four-part Picnic Pops Concert Series

Episode 6

THE BAND AWAKENS

*At first light, you're still haunted by a tune that has been following you everywhere. But when you prepare yourself for the day, it's not there. In desperation, you shout out,
"Honey! Where's my super suit?"*

PEARLS BEFORE SWINE

BY STEPHAN PASTIS

CONDUCTOR'S WELCOME – CHERYL WOLDSETH

Remakes. Sequels. Episodes. Repeats. So why do we love it again and again?

We spend hours viewing movies we've seen before, binge-watching episodes of favorite TV shows, quoting song lyrics or commercials or famous people, rereading a favorite book, and listening to hours of songs that we've already heard.

The truth is that repetition invites the listener to become an active participant in the music, rather than just passive listeners. As we are repeatedly exposed to the same thing, we recognize patterns, notice new aspects otherwise missed the first time around, and root for the next familiar aspect.

Why? We like it because it is familiar, and makes us feel good. It reminds us of the past in the warm fuzzy way of nostalgia, and remembering makes us feel good. Old movies, songs, or books never disappoint because we already know how they end, and that therapeutic control makes us feel good. Revisiting something from the past means we can see it again with a new perspective, and that makes us feel good.

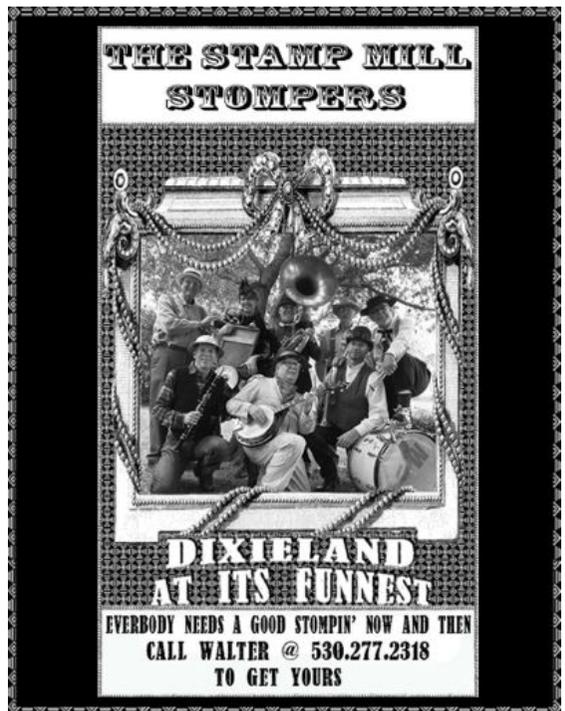

Today, the Nevada County Concert Band will perform great music that has stood the test of time – and can withstand remakes, sequels, and other pop-culture references. And this is just the beginning. Today's concert is "The Band Awakens," the next episode in our connected series of picnic pops concerts for the 2018 summer. Stay tuned for the next chapters (which correspond to months #6, 7, and 8), for we're just getting started today!

Suppose the singing birds musicians,
The grass whereon thou tread'st
the presence strew'd,
The flowers fair ladies, and thy steps no more
Than a delightful measure or a dance;
For gnarling sorrow hath less power to bite
The man that mocks at it and sets it light.
